I am a papercut illustrator who specializes in creating handmade children's illustrations featuring a whimsical world inhabited by charming animal citizens. I live with two cats next to the Mississippi River in Minneapolis, MN, USA, and I am currently seeking representation for my illustration work.

I hold a BFA in Studio Arts from the University of Minnesota, where I began my career as a painter. A decade ago, I fell in love with the magical intricacy and charm of paper-cutting and taught myself the craft.

I've spent hours walking in the woods near my house, always hoping to spot a cat canoeing or a bear selling lemonade around the next bend. I have yet to spot them in the wild, but in the meantime I bring these characters to life in my illustrations.

Additionally, I spend my days working as a teaching assistant in Special Education, I am a passionate advocate for inclusion, kindness, and creativity for all. Through my work, I encourage people of all ages and abilities to look for joy and magic in every experience.
